

Radar

Creative Graduate Accelerator

RADAR is an accelerator scheme devised by Threshold Studios in collaboration with the University of Lincoln, offering paid internship placements and mentorship for creative graduates looking for a head start after University.

49 PAID
INTERNSHIPS
FROM 2011 TO 2017

We have provided internships in the following roles:
Marketing, Technician,
Production Assistant,
Web Development, Curatorial,
Graphic Design, Festival Assistant,
Media Production

WHAT THEY ARE DOING NOW:

91%

are currently employed

69%

of which are employed in related fields

8%

are in further study, training or pursuing freelance work within the creative field.

“It was a great learning curve for me, a real taste of working in the art industry and how great it was working together with creative and like-minded people.”

Rebecca, Festival Assistant Intern

“It was both very demanding and rewarding in equal measure.”

Brad, Technician Intern

“Not only do you receive a great work opportunity but the support that you get alongside this for your own personal development is amazing, the team are genuinely interested in you as a person and helping you on your way to the big, scary world of post-University work.”

Emma, Festival Assistant Intern

UNIVERSITY OF LINCOLN

Threshold